AT the Court at St. James's, the 12th Day of July, 1716.

PRESENT,

His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales.

Archbiſhop of Canterbury,	Lord Viſcount Townſhend,
Lord Chancellor,	Biſhop of London.
Lord Preſident,	Mr. Speaker of the Houſe of Commons,
Lord Privy Seal,	Mr. Secretary Methuen,
Lord Steward,	Mr. Chancellor of the Exchequer,
Lord Chamberlain,	Lord Chief Juſtice King,
Marquis of Annandale,	Lieutenant General Erle.
Earl of Dorſet,
Earl of Tankerville,

His Majeſty's Commiſſion, appointing His Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales Guardian of the Kingdom of Great Britain, and His Majeſty's Lieutenant within the ſame during His Majeſty's Abſence, was this Day, by His Royal Highneſs's Command, opened and read in Council.

Edward Southwell.

This Day the Right Honourable John Aiſlabie, Eſq; was, by Command of His Royal Highneſs, Sworn of His Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

Warſaw, June 30. By Letters from Lublin of the 25th Inſtant we have Advice, that the Confederates have agreed to a Ceſſation of Arms; but that the Publication of it is to be deferred, till Lemberg and Zamoſch be evacuated by the Saxons. The Demands of the Confederates are ſo high, that 'tis likely the Conferences there may continue longer than was at firſt believed. The Perſons againſt whom they expreſs the moſt violent Reſentment are the Crown-General and the Palatine of Culm. The firſt they have in their Cuſtody, and have ſent him Priſoner to Caminiec, in order, as they give out, to try him for his Life; and they inſiſt that the other ſhall be diveſted of all the Honours and Dignities he holds in the Republick. The Saxon Troops hold themſelves in a Readineſs to march, and are to draw together at a Place called Koulm, 12 Miles from this City.

Ratisbon, July 9. Letters from Eſſeck of the 21ſt of laſt Month, ſay they had no certain Advice from the Frontiers on the Save, but were poſitively aſſured from Belgrade, that no new Forces were arrived there before the 14th. The Aga of the Janiſaries was expected, as ſome ſaid, with 30; and others with 50000 Men, Horſe and Foot, as ſoon as the Ovens which were building there for the Army could be ready; and would then be followed by the Grand Vizier, who was ſtill at Niſſa. The Imperial Reſident was ſaid to be fetched from Conſtantinople, and to be with the Grand Vizier. On the 20th a very great firing at Belgrade had been heard, but was ſaid to be for ſome Advantage the Turks had gained over the Venetians at Sea, and not for the Arrival of the Grand Vizier. We have Advice, that the Elector Palatine will ſtay about a Fortnight at Inſpruck, to perform the Obſequies of his late Brother, and will then make a Tour to Vienna, and return to Inſpruck before he ſets out for his Reſidence of Duſſeldorp. Count Gergy, the French Plenipotentiary to the Dyet, having been for ſome Days with the Elector of Bavaria at Munich, arrived here on the 6th Inſtant.

Bruſſels, July 27. On the 11th Inſtant the Marquis de Croiſſy, late Ambaſſador from the Court of France to the King of Sweden, arrived here from the Hague, and on the 13th went hence for Paris: Count Kinigſegg cauſed the Honours uſually paid to Ambaſſadors in this Country to be given him; accordingly the Guards ſaluted him, the Drums beating a March, and the Cannon of the Town was fired at his Departure. The Magiſtrates of this Place have ſeized the Goods of ſeveral Jews who reſide and trade here, under Pretext of an old Placart which has lain dormant theſe 40 Years paſt: 'Tis believed they will reſtore the Goods, but baniſh the Jews from hence, unleſs the Government interpoſe their Authority. M. Chanclos, who is Collonel of a Regiment of Dragoons in the Service of the States-General, was this Day declared Major-General in his Imperial and Catholick Majeſty's Service, and continued Governor of Oudenarde. Letters from Vienna tell us, that Prince Eugene of Savoy ſet out the 1ſt Inſtant from thence, to take on him the Command of the Imperial Army in Hungary; that the Day of the Marquis de Prié's Departure for the Netherlands was ſtill uncertain, but 'twas ſuppoſed he would not ſtay above 14 Days longer at Vienna, having received all his Diſpatches.

Hague, July 17. On the 15th Inſtant the States of this Province of Holland began their Seſſions. They have filled up ſeveral vacant Employments in their Troops; particularly, Captain Paterſon is made Major of the Scotch Regiment commanded by Brigadier Douglas, and Captain Brody (who ſerved as Aide de Camp to my Lord Cadogan in Scotland) is made Major of the Scotch Regiment commanded by Sir James Wood. The Courier which the Emperor had ſent ſo long ago to the Port, to know the Sultan's laſt Reſolution for Peace or War, arrived by Sea at Marſeilles on the 28th of laſt Month, having left Conſtantinople the 22d of May. M. Collier took that Occaſion of writing to the States, an Account of Affairs at the Port, and has ſent them a ſort of Manifeſto drawn by the Turks, in the Nature of a Declaration of War againſt the Emperor. We have Advice from Paris, that the Prince of Portugal having received there a conſiderable Sum, remitted to him by the King his Brother, was gone incognito towards Germany, in order to go to the Court of Vienna, deſigning ('twas ſaid) to make the Campaign in Hungary.

From on board the Aſſiſtance, in Margate Roads, July 10, at 12 at Night. The Squadron of Men of War commanded by Admiral Aylmer, conſiſting of the Monk, York, Superbe, Royal Anne Galley, Launceſton, and this Ship, were appointed to attend the Yachts, with which His Majeſty ſailed from Graveſend on the 7th Inſtant about 3 a Clock in the Afternoon. We all made the Coaſt of Holland on the 9th in the Morning a little after 5 a Clock, and about 6 brought to, waiting for the Tide. At 10 we made an eaſie ſail for the Maeſe, and ſtood in with the Yachts till half an Hour paſt 1, when being as near the Bar as we durſt venture with our Ships, we paid our Salutes to His Majeſty, and clapping upon a Wind ſtood off into deep Water and anchored. We ſaw the Yachts all Anchor ſafely in the Maeſe, and about 4 in the Afternoon ſaw the Royal Standard on board the Carolina ſtruck, which was the ſignal of His Majeſty's going aſhore. Soon after which, Captain Vernon (commanding this Ship the Aſſiſtance) was ordered by the Admiral to make the beſt of his Way to Sheerneſs, and to ſend to Court by Expreſs from the firſt Port he ſhould make, an Account of His Majeſty's having landed in Holland. Accordingly weighing at 7 Yeſterday in the Evening we ſailed, and came into theſe Roads at 12 this Night.

Deal, July 11. His Majeſty's Ships the Monk, York, Superbe, Royal Anne Galley, and Launceſton, as alſo the Aſſiſtance, are come into the Downes.

St.

St. James's, July 11. This Afternoon arrived an Expreſs from Margate, with an Account of His Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in Holland.

Whereas there have been lately loſt, miſlaid, or taken out of His Majeſty's Kitchen in St. James's, one Silver Sauce-pan, and 4 Silver Sauce-pan Covers, having the late Queen's Arms with A. R. engraven on each of the ſaid Pieces: Whoſoever can diſcover the ſaid Plate, ſo as that it may be reſtored for His Majeſty's Service, ſhall receive as a Reward the Sum of 20 l. for the whole, and proportionable for any part, at the Office of the Greencloth in St. James's. And if any Perſon concerned, or Confederate in ſtealing or purloyning the ſaid Plate, will diſcover his Accomplices, he ſhall have His Majeſty's Gracious Pardon, and the like Reward as above-mentioned for all or any part of the Plate thereby recovered: And all Goldſmiths, Silverſmiths, &c. are deſired, if the aboveſaid Plate, or any part thereof, be offered to Sale, that they detain the ſame, and the Perſon or Perſons in whoſe Cuſtody it is found, and give Notice thereof to the Board of Greencloth.

The Commiſſioners for managing His Majeſty's Duties on Stamp'd Vellom, Parchment and Paper, (for the better ſecuring the Stamp-Duties on Aſſignments of Bail-Bonds) have thought fit to order their Officers, before they deliver out any Aſſignment of any Bail-Bond, after the ſame is ſtamped, to write thereupon the Day whereon the ſame was ſtamped, to the intent that if the ſame were not ſtamped before any Action brought thereupon, as the Statutes require, the Attorney for the Bail may take Advantage thereof.
